

Our Time: Class Information

Semester 2 2011: 15th July – 2nd December

Fiddle-dee-dee

A 16 week Unit for children 18 months – 3 years and a parent/caregiver

A variety of animal characters feature in the books, activities, and songs of this playful unit—each specifically chosen for your toddler's emerging interests and physical skills. Animal sounds, which are so appealing to children, naturally prompt imitation and provide abundant focused listening and vocal play opportunities. Silly, bumpy lap bounces, dancing and instrument exploration all help your child develop rhythm, beat, listening and language skills. You'll hear an emphasis on stringed instruments - the banjo, lute, classical and folk guitar, violin, cello, and orchestra sounds all come alive on your home CDs. In addition you'll hear a diverse collection of music representing many cultures including Bangara Dance, a traditional Punjabi folk dance from Northern India and Alle Meine Entlein (All My Little Ducklings) a German folksong. The Japanese selections for rocking – Komoriuta (Lullaby) and Usagi Usagi (Rabbit Rabbit) are sung by a Japanese mother and child and French is featured in two songs – the French-Canadian Ah! Les Jolis Papillons (Oh, The Pretty Butterflies) and Morning Song.
